

Province of British Columbia and Ducks Unlimited Canada Conservation Award

in recognition of wetland conservation leaders

Call for Nominations

Nominations are due October 21, 2011 for the Province of British Columbia and Ducks Unlimited Canada Conservation Award to recognize outstanding leadership, dedication and commitment to promoting public awareness of the value of conserving wetland and associated habitat in British Columbia for the benefit of waterfowl, wildlife and people.

Awarded annually, this distinguished award recognizes a person, company or organization that has:

- Contributed to public awareness of wetland conservation
- Volunteered with an organization or community-based program or project benefitting wetland conservation in B.C.
- Shown leadership in a wetland education project or activity.

Download the nomination form at www.ducks.ca/conserves/leaders. The completed nomination must be received by October 21, 2011.
